Urban Expo at the World Urban Forum

Exhibition Guidelines
The Emirate of Abu Dhabi will host the tenths session of the World Urban Forum (WUF10) from 8 to 13 February 2020 under the theme: Cities of Opportunities: Connecting Culture and Innovation.

Organized and convened by the United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat), the World Urban Forum is one of the most inclusive gatherings on the international arena. This, combined with high-level participation, makes it a unique United Nations conference. It is also the premier international gathering on urban issues. The forum is expected to attract over 20,000 local and international delegates.

The Urban Expo

To illustrate the theme, an Urban Expo promoting innovative and sustainable solutions for the challenges facing cities and communities will take place throughout the Forum.

UN-Habitat invites governments, subnational governments, non-governmental organizations, the United Nations family, international organizations, private sector, academia and other stakeholders to present and display innovative projects, establish connections and look at how we can reshape the future of our cities and communities.
Why exhibit?

- Illustrate examples and share experiences on the implementation of the New Urban Agenda and urban dimensions of the Sustainable Development Goals
- Share and explore innovative projects, best practices and initiatives in line with UN-Habitat’s mandate and the theme of the Forum
- Meet and network with urban experts, professionals, urban enthusiasts and decision makers; and
- Create new partnerships with key decision makers.

Key features

The Expo will feature

1) Country and city pavilions showcasing innovative and sustainable projects, initiatives and partnerships contributing to the implementation of the New Urban Agenda and achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals.

2) United Nations and international organizations’ booths profiling initiatives on building, planning and reconstructing better, more inclusive cities.

3) Private Sector booths showcasing frontier technologies and other cutting-edge urban solutions and products.

4) Academic institutions presenting the latest urban trends and knowledge.

5) Non-Governmental Organizations promoting inclusive approaches.

Guidelines for exhibitors

This Exhibitors’ Guide contains administrative information, technical and operational guidance as well as deadlines that exhibitors must comply with during the exhibition mounting, rollout and dismantling to avoid disruptions to the schedule of foreseen activities.
