Summary

This event will provide an opportunity for Africa to adapt the guidelines to her context and further develop tools and monitoring indicators for the implementation of the IG-UTP in the member states. Importantly, this event will reiterate the need for Africa to craft home grown solutions to her urbanization challenges leaning from international tools, standards and best practices in urban and territorial planning. The Implementation framework for urban and territorial planning also provides guidance on the realignment and domestication of the guidelines to sub-regional and national circumstances in Africa. The side event, will also popularize the framework and the implementation of the IG-UTP in Africa in a number of ways including regional, sub-regional, national and local dissemination and advocacy through the WUF platform. This will in turn inform and guide the development of national action plans for the implementation of the IG-UTP based on the Regional priorities.
