Alex Munive

is a child rights, development and gender equality specialist. Currently, he is the Head of Plan International’s Global Gender Equality and Inclusion team. Alex has experience working in programmes and campaigns that promote gender equality and social development in several countries in Asia, Latin America and Africa. He has worked as a consultant for the European Union, the Nordic Development Fund, the Inter-American Development Bank, and the Finnish government. During the last seven years, he has been guiding the development of Plan’s global gender transformative flagship initiatives focusing on girls’ rights, in particular the programme Safer Cities for Girls. These initiatives are currently been implemented in all continents. He has also led the development and roll out of Plan’s community wide approach to transform gender social norms, named ‘Champions of Change for Gender Equality and Girls Rights’.

Dr. Anja Stuckert

holds a PhD in education, has over 20 years of working experience in human rights, gender equality and international development. Since 2016 she is coordinating Plan’s Safer Cities for Girls programme as the Global Programme Manager. Anja is passionate about gender justice, girls’ rights and addressing the root causes of inequality, exclusion and poverty. In her work with colleagues around the world, she is developing holistic and participatory approaches to prevent all forms of gender-based violence, with a special focus on sexual harassment and violence against adolescent girls in public spaces and on public transport. She believes in promoting youth participation and gender equality as key elements of a sustainable urban development.
