Guidelines for the poster sessions

World Urban Forum
Eleventh Session
Katowice, Poland, 26–30 June 2022
GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1. The poster sessions are organised by Institute of Urban and Regional Development and Ministry of Funds and Regional Policy (hereinafter: the organisers).
2. Substantive course of the poster sessions is supervised by the representatives of: Cracow University of Economics, Jagiellonian University in Cracow, Silesian University of Technology and Poznań University of Life Sciences.
3. The thematic scope of the poster sessions is divided into 4 thematic strands: Green City, Equitable and Inclusive, Sustainable Urban Mobility, Affordable Housing
4. The Organisers do not plan to pay fees for those participating in the poster sessions.
5. The Organisers reserve the right to keep and use the list of speakers for the poster sessions and to publish the names of companies, institutions and organisations together with the scientific title of each participant. The participants agree to the above.
6. The Organisers reserve the right to introduce changes in the organizational arrangements of the poster sessions (including, among others, the number of sessions in a given topic, the dates of recruitment and announcement of the final list of accepted participants or the form of poster presentation).

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION IN THE POSTER SESSION

1. The Organisers plan to organise a total of 10 poster sessions in English language.
2. The content presented during the poster sessions can be related to the scientific, professional, activist or hobby work of the applicant.
3. A participant wishing to take part in one of the poster sessions is required to complete the Application Form (attached to the Guidelines) and send it on or before 15 May 2022.
4. Please send your application for participation in the poster session to: tec-wuf11@irmir.pl
5. The Organisers reserve the right to select applications from those submitted. The final acceptance of applications will be decided by the indicated poster session supervisors. Information on acceptance or rejection of an application will be sent no later than 31 May 2022 to the e-mail address from which the application was sent.
6. The number of participants in a single poster session is limited (to approximately 40 posters).
7. Presenting in the poster session consists of preparing a poster in English, in a format no larger than B1 (vertical alignment). The poster should include: the main objective and the most relevant issues for the topic. The content presented in the poster should be concise and legible. The heading of the poster should include: title of the work, full name(s) of the author(s) of the work, name of the institution represented.

8. The Organisers do not provide printing of the poster. Participants are required to print their own materials. The Organisers will provide accessories for attaching the posters.

9. The poster sessions are conducted in a stationary format and are divided into 4 main thematic strands. A single poster session will be held in the form of an exhibition of submitted works, with an opportunity for those interested in the topic to ask questions addressed to the author(s) of the poster.

10. Active and passive participation (the latter in the sense of being a listener) in the poster sessions, and thus entry to the space of the International Congress Centre in Katowice, is only possible through registration at WUF11.
